Eiichiro Oda began his manga career at the age of 17, when his one-shot cowboy manga Wanted! won second place in the coveted Tezuka manga awards. Oda went on to work as an assistant to some of the biggest manga artists in the industry, including Nobuhiro Watsuki, before winning the Hop Step Award for new artists. His pirate adventure One Piece, which debuted in Weekly Shonen Jump in 1997, quickly became one of the most popular manga in Japan.

AAAAAH !!

WEEZ !!

Y...Y-YOU'RE HERE!!!

PHYSICAL MINKTIMACY IS OUR WAY OF EXPRESSING FRIENDSHIP.

PLEASE DO YOUR BEST TO OVERLOOK THE LITTLE DIFFERENCES IN OUR CULTURES.

BUT ACTUALLY, THAT WORKS TO OUR ADVANTAGE!

HE'S LOCKED HIMSELF IN HIS ROOM AND WON'T COME OUT.

WELL, WHILE WE ARE HERE, IF AT ALL POSSIBLE, TRY NOT TO USE THE WORDS...

HE SHOULD BE ARRIVING HERE ANY MOMENT NOW.

AND THE SKILL OF THE MUSKETEERS DEFIES ALL DESCRIPTION!

WHAT DOES THAT HAVE TO DO WITH HIM FALLING

HUH?
WHY?!

...BUT IN A
FIGHT, THEY ARE EQUALS IN STRENGTH!

SO BAD THAT IF THEY SHOULD MEET IN PERSON,
THEY MIGHT FIGHT TO THE DEATH.

AND "WITH THE MOON, FROM SIX AT NIGHT TO SIX IN THE MORNING."

THIS, "WITH THE SUN, FROM SIX IN THE MORNING TO SIX AT NIGHT."

...THEY CHOOSE NOT TO EVER SEE EACH OTHER.

Q: Hello. I'm having trouble understanding the general world layout of One Piece. New World, East Blue, Red Line--I don't get where the heck these things are in relation to each other. Can you explain this in an easy-to-understand way, like with a globe or something?

--Caterpillar

A: Wow...talk about a fresh question!! Yes, I suppose it doesn't add up much, does it? I'm sorry for drawing such an unhelpful manga. So for new readers, we put together a guide to the World of One Piece at the end of the book! Check it out, if you want!!

Q: Hi, Mr. Oda. I'm curious about the names of some new characters from Volume 78. Please introduce us to the doctor begging for help, the little granddaughter, and the grandma who told her to run ahead and leave her behind.

--Person

A: Here they are.

Doctor
Needa Hand
(Hobby: Guitar)

Elderly Woman
Stella Live
(Former Dancer)

Grandkid
Staya Live
(Future Dancer)

Q: I can make out most of them, but can you give us a rundown of who wrote each autograph on page 115 of Volume 80?

--Also, Who Were They For?

A: The five crew members made these autographs for Bartolomeo, of course.

AND THAT WAS JACK.

...A MONSTER !!!

FOR HE IS TRULY...

IF ANYTHING, THERE WAS JUST ONE PLACE WHERE WE COULDN'T BREAK THEM DOWN...

BUT OVER TIME, WE STEADILY AND SURELY OVERCAME THE ENEMY!!

BUT THE REVERSE
WAS TRUE AS WELL.
JACK'S POWER WAS NOT

Q: Hello, Odacchi. I've thought up some birthdays for those people who haven't got any characters on their birthday yet. How are these?

The violet flower is "sumire," and "su" is 4 in Chinese

Miss Father's Day (June 21)

A: Very nice. You went for the days that hadn't been taken! And yet there's no one listed on your own birthday yet. That's very kind of you. They're all accepted.

Q: Can Kuina's birthday be 9/17 for "ku" (nine) "i-chi" (one) "na-na" (seven)? What? What-what-what was that?! Huh? Oh yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah-yeah-yeah! (Trebol-style)

--God, Punya, Inazuma

Q: Odacchi! Hello!! So, for Penguin and Shachi, the duo from the Heart Pirates, I came up with these dates to fill in the empty spots in the calendar!

--Sami

Q: Oda Sensei! How about Rebecca's father Kyros (ku for nine) holding up the peace sign with both hands for 22--September 22nd! Please recognize my hard effort on this.

--Chibimaru

A: Thanks, guys. You really stretched for some of these. But as long as they fill the calendar, I don't care!! Anything goes! Whoever gets there first, wins!!

Q: Greetings, Oda Sensei! In Chapter 800 of Volume 80, I noticed that the sails of some of the Yontamaria ships said 3 Tamaria (San Tamaria) and 2 Tamaria (Ni Tamaria). Since yon means "four," are these a representation of the rank of the ships? Does Columbus ride on a 3 Tamaria? Also, is the insignia of the egg taken from the concept of the "Egg of Columbus"?

--Samurai Ryota

A: Good call. That's right: there are three ranks of ships in the Yontamaria Fleet. There are 50 Nitamaria ships that take the lead, another five Santamaria ships that are slightly larger, and the biggest one is the mothership, Yontamaria.

(Nitamaria)

(Santamaria)

(Yontamaria)

	(Happosai)		Meanwhile, Sai's Happosui have one big Happosai and seven armored Ipposai ships.
	(Ipposai)

	Cavendish leads the Sleeping Forest White Steed.		Ha jrudin's Viking-style Naglfar.
Bartolomeo's weird ship.

Ideo and Leo don't have ships, so Ideo caught a ride with Orlumbus. Of course, you don't need to remember any of this information!

--Iku

A: Oh, geez, what was that, "excellent"? Can you say it one more time? I just need to hit the "record" button. Anyway, I get a lot of these requests. It's a difficult thing to answer in the SBS, but in Japan recently, they came out with something called Jump-ryu! (Jump Style). They're magazines with DVDs containing footage of artists drawing their manga, which may or may not help you. As a matter of fact, these publications are put together by a former One Piece editor, Habu-yan. If it hadn't been by his request, I never would have allowed them to film such a thing (laughs). It's quite a rare opportunity, and I myself would like to check out some of the other artists involved, so check it out! I'm sorry if it's a little bit too expensive for you, Iku.

Q: Nice to meet you, Odacchi! Is it true that the source for the "Cat Viper" who appeared in Chapter 806 is a song by none other than Cho, the voice actor for Brook? I am a super-super-super fan of his, and I'm so fascinated by this that I can't sleep after 10 o'clock!! Please give Cho all of my best!!

--Puuchan-chan

A: Yes. This book contains both the first appearance of Cat Viper, and Brook's song about him. Go ahead and search on Youtube for "Nekomamushi Song" and watch the video. It's sung by Cho, Brook's actor! The melody and lyrics were penned by Choko, his wife. He just happened to have sung this song years ago, and I liked it so much that I asked him, "Can I have Brook sing this song?" With their permission, the Cat Viper has taken life in the manga, although his style is a bit different due to story reasons. I can't wait to hear Brook sing this in the anime (laughs).

Q: Please, Sensei, draw us a picture of Gambia's grandma back in the country!! I bet she looks so nice and sweet.
--Aminchi

A:

Here's Grandma. Technically, she's not related to anyone in the Barto Club. The club is basically just a huge street gang that grew out of a group of old pals that ran wild in the sticks. Eventually they got really obsessed with the Straw Hats, and then the Best of the Best of them went out to sea. As for Grandma, she owned the local candy shop that they used to hang out at, so they're all very fond of her. Her mind is packed full of folk remedies and wisdom, and she's always been a source of advice for them, given their lack of knowledge about the sea. Sometimes the advice is useful, sometimes not. (Usually not.)

Q: Hello there. In the scene where these → sailors are searching for weapons and bullets, is that one guy, er...searching for his "rounds" down there? Did he find them?
--Boss Keyaki

A: Have no fear. He found two.

That does it for the SBS! See you next volume!!

ONE PIECE WORLD GUIDE

Understand the course of adventure!

You want an explanation of the four seas and the Grand Line that Luffy's crew has been sailing? Look no further!

RED LINE

The enormous continent that cuts the seas into two. At its peak, it pierces the clouds, making it difficult terrain to cross by land.

The Red Line and Grand Line split the water into four seas!!

The perpendicular paths of the Grand Line and Red Line intersect in a way that splits the world into four major seas.

Sanji is from the North Blue

Luffy, Zolo, Nami & Usopp are from the East Blue

Robin & Brook are from the West Blue

Franky is from the South Blue

Chopper is from the Grand Line

Travel through the Grand Line using a Log Pose!!

LOG POSE

A special stretch of sea that runs along all four seas around the world, bordered by the Calm Belt on either side. It features baffling currents and weather patterns - navigation is impossible without a Log Pose.

← The Calm Belts that border the Grand Line are home to Neptunians. They're impossible to cross without equipment like the Navy's sea prism stone-lined ships.

A: Saturday, July 23, 2016!! Our first animated film in three years!! July, right during summer vacation! Isn't summer great? How would you like a nice juicy slice of entertainment this summer?! Well, the entire staff is panting and wheezing to bring it to you!! It's called GOLD!! And this movie is going to be COOL and GORGEOUS!! What is my role in the project? Boom!

Executive Producer: Eiichiro Oda

★ Hey. Hi! I'm a guy who's pretty good at making One Piece!! I'm the secret mastermind behind the movie. I make everyone tea! (Just kidding.) I promise that we'll bring you something cool!! So right off the bat, I want to reassure you all of its quality! Here he is, the life of the film!!

Art Director: Masayuki Sato

★ Yes, it's "Satomasa"!! (Eek!) The adventurer who brought a new breath of life to the One Piece movies!! He has agreed to work with us again!! I put him through so much hell the last two times that I was certain he wouldn't agree to do it again (cries). Thank you so much, I really mean it!! He might look laid-back, but a burning passion hides behind those features!! The power of art!! Watch this movie closely!! Also, check out this fun guy who wrote the script!

Screenplay: Tsutomu Kuroiwa

★ Okay, this part is important too!! It's a very talented writer, the clever Mr. Kuroiwa! Not only does he have an accomplished career, he's a sharp writer with a resiliency that rolls with the punches. He wrote us up a truly dynamic story!! I hope you're excited about Film Gold!! He also put in work on the summer TV special that ties in with the movie! That one's good too! Check it out!!

■ Tsutomu Kuroiwa

Screenwriter. His main credits are the After-Dinner Mysteries and Liar Game series, and the drama series Welcome to My Home, Strawberry Night, and Samurai Sensei. One Piece Film Gold will be his first animated feature.

★ Finally, in this movie, the music will play an important role! So we've got to get this part right!! Whom can we turn to for some real BIG BAND jazz?! The first name that popped into my head is a genius Blues singer I've been following for twenty years!!

Insert Songs: Mayumi Kojima

Yes, we've got her!! When we heard the first demo take, the entire staff said, "Wow! This is it!" Let me tell you, her music and singing are the real deal!! Mayumi Kojima is a monster in the music scene who has mastered jazz, Blues, swing, and anything else that catches her fancy. She offered to sing something for a character in the movie, so if you want a preview, check out any of her available music!! My favorites are "Amai Koi" and "Heart ni Hi wo Tsukete," but they're all great.

Genius in the house!!

She's going to rock our opening theme and insert song!!

■ Mayumi Kojima

A girl-pop singer/songwriter who trades in "good-old-days" music. She debuted in 1995 with the single "Marriage Counseling Office." She's released nine albums since then. <http://www.kojimamayumi.com>
